Biographical Sketches

Emily Tucker was born in Winchester, Massachusetts, on 21 July 1896 to John Prentice Tucker (1864-1921) and Annie H. Fitts (1862-1927). She was sick a lot as a child and missed many days of school. Her diaries document her cases of measles and mumps. Later she attended The Winsor School in Boston. From 1957 to 1964, Emily worked full-time as a clerk and stenographer in the Department of Natural Resources, Division of Marine Fisheries in Boston. When her mother passed away in December 1927, Emily was appointed executrix. She handled her mother's estate and took a trip to Europe in the summer of 1928.

Sometime before May 1929, Emily's cousin, Priscilla Ordway (1889-1971) and her father, Herbert I. Ordway (1851-1931), petitioned the court for guardianship of Emily, alleging that Emily was "an insane person" and incapable of taking care of herself. On May 8, 1929, Priscilla was appointed guardian. Emily's cousin, Ruth W. Pratt, had made a provision in her will for the care of Emily during her lifetime, so Emily had some income from stock dividends in addition to her salary. In 1975, two new guardians, Mr. and Mrs. H. Russell (Elsie R.) Perry of Carlisle, Massachusetts, were appointed. H. Russell was also Emily's cousin. Emily died on 10 April 1981 in Concord, Massachusetts, and is buried at Wildwood Cemetery in Winchester, beside her mother and sister.

Annie H. Fitts Tucker was born on 6 November 1862 in Haverhill, Massachusetts, to Daniel Fitts (1830-1902) and Sarah Swan Walker Appleton (1829-1903). She married John Prentice Tucker on 22 October 1890 in Boston. They had two daughters, Janet (1893-1893), who died in infancy, and Emily (1896-1981). On 14 January 1916, Annie was granted a divorce from John and full custody of Emily. The reason was “confirmed habits of intoxication caused by the voluntary and excessive use of intoxicating liquor.” Annie died in Brookline, Massachusetts, on 16 December 1927 at age 65, and is buried at Wildwood Cemetery in Winchester.

John Prentice Tucker was born on 17 July 1864 in Concord, New Hampshire, to Josiah Prentice Tucker (1833-1902) and Hannah Ralston (1832-1897). He died on 10 September 1921 and is buried in Hingham, Massachusetts.
