

Scythe by Neal Shusterman

Review by Natalia

Dystopian

Recommended for ages 14+

What originally made you interested in reading/watching/playing this media? How did you hear about it or come across it?

I got interested in it when I saw it on a shelf in the library.

Is it part of a series? If so, what series is it?

Yes, Arc of a Scythe

What is this media about? Make sure to give enough interesting details without spoiling too much!

The book is about a time when humans can be immortal and can even reset their clock age to look younger again. Scythes become the people who's jobs are to end lives and they are the only ones that can do so. A girl Citra and a boy Rowan are chosen to be apprentices to a scythe and even though neither of them want the position- their fate lies on whether they are picked as a scythe or not.

Who are the main characters? What makes them interesting or unique?

Rowan and Citra

Does this media remind you of anything else you've read/watched/played?

This reminds me of Divergent a little bit.

What type of person might enjoy this media? For example, this book is for someone who likes Percy Jackson, someone who enjoys getting scared, someone who likes a challenge, etc.

This book is for someone who likes fiction but with a realistic twist.

Did you like this media? Would you recommend it to others? Why or why not?

I really like this book and I really recommend it! It was very interesting and once I read the first book I just had to read the others.

Do you like the cover? Does it convey what the media is about?

The cover is unique, it isn't too crowded but not too simple and it really shows the idea of the book in a sleek and unique way.

Do you have any last thoughts about this media that you would like to include in your review?
