What originally made you interested in reading/watching/playing this media? How did you hear about it or come across it?

I first started listening to Mitski around 2018 and have been a big fan ever since. This is her latest album that came out in 2023 and it's one of my favorites, I also got to see it live on her last US Tour.

Is it part of a series? If so, what series is it?

This is Mitski's 7th album.

What is this media about? Make sure to give enough interesting details without spoiling too much!

The album has messages of love and loss, as well as self discovery and reflection.

Who are the main characters? What makes them interesting or unique?

Does this media remind you of anything else you've read/watched/played?

A lot of other albums by Mitski has similar themes, but Jeff Buckley's album Grace has a similar feel and some overlapping themes.

What type of person might enjoy this media? For example, this book is for someone who likes Percy Jackson, someone who enjoys getting scared, someone who likes a challenge, etc.

Anyone who enjoys music that is on the sadder sad, or a lullaby like tune. Like Lana Del Rey or Fiona Apple.

Did you like this media? Would you recommend it to others? Why or why not?

This is another one of my favorite Mitski albums and I would definitely recommend this to others who have similar music tastes to me.

Do you like the cover? Does it convey what the media is about?

While the cover might not totally convey all messages in the album, it really shows Mitski artistic ability and creative mindset compared to other artists.
