Mystery

What originally made you interested in reading/watching/playing this media? How did you hear about it or come across it?

I originally became interested in this series from seeing various other students and friends read these books. I learned more about it through social media.

Is it part of a series? If so, what series is it?

Yes, the series is called "A Good Girls Guide To Murder"

What is this media about? Make sure to give enough interesting details without spoiling too much!

A Good Girls Guide is about a girl named Pip who wants to reinvestigate the case of Andie Bell for her capstone. The murdered happened in her small town 5 years ago. Andie's boyfriend Sal Singh was found guilty of the murder. She didn't believe that outcome Sal had always been nice and smart. So Pip recruits his younger brother Ravi to conduct the case. She is later told it cannot be used as her capstone and decides to make a podcast so that everyone will know the truth. The case has its ups and downs she could lose everything she has family, friends.

Who are the main characters? What makes them interesting or unique?

Pippa Fitz-Amobi is the main character she is fierce and determined to make the truth come out. Ravi Singh her partner in crime is the younger brother of the one that was accused of the murder. Sal Singh accused of the murder of Andie Bell. Andie Bell- Young girl murdered in this small town.

Does this media remind you of anything else you've read/watched/played?

There is a TV show based of the books. It reminds me of "One of Us is Lying" another mystery series.

What type of person might enjoy this media? For example, this book is for someone who likes Percy Jackson, someone who enjoys getting scared, someone who likes a challenge, etc.

This book is for someone who likes the thrill of a case where everything is connected. Who enjoys a good mystery and a strong female character.

Did you like this media? Would you recommend it to others? Why or why not?

I would definitely recommend it to others, the books encapsulate you into the world of Pip and how she navigates the truth and how to expose it.

Do you like the cover? Does it convey what the media is about?

The cover is interesting as it is like a case board where they pin the pictures and write notes which is very much what Pip does to solve this case.

Do you have any last thoughts about this media that you would like to include in your review?

I think that everyone should try this book and the series Holly Jackson is an amazing writer and makes the world of the characters melt into yours.
