What originally made you interested in reading/watching/playing this media? How did you hear about it or come across it?

Back in 2024 when the Deadpool and Wolverine movie came out, I went to see that with my dad and cousin and actually really loved it but I never understood anything because I had only ever seen the Deadpool movies so I wanted more backstory and only recently got into the X-Men movies and love them.

Is it part of a series? If so, what series is it?

It's part of the X-Men films, and the first one to watch.

What is this media about? Make sure to give enough interesting details without spoiling too much!

It's about a bunch of mutated humans with powers of some type who are trying to fight to survive and be accepted. The 'normal' humans, are strongly against them and fears them.

Who are the main characters? What makes them interesting or unique?

There are many characters that could be considered main, but the top three would be Logan (Wolverine) Professor X (Charles Xavier) And Erik (Magneto). Logan's power is really just being strong, he has metal claws that retract and healing powers that make him regenerate when hit. Xavier is the founder of their school and he is one of the strongest Telepaths there are. And lastly Magneto, he can control metal.

Does this media remind you of anything else you've read/watched/played?

I haven't watched many superhero movies other than X-Men and I'm currently getting into the MCU movies, but even those it doesn't feel the same at all. It's really its own thing and I love it.

What type of person might enjoy this media? For example, this book is for someone who likes Percy Jackson, someone who enjoys getting scared, someone who likes a challenge, etc.

I think this movie would be for people who feel like outcasts, in my experience that's why I think I really loved it. I think to relate it to other medias, really anyone who likes superheroes and antiheroes because it goes into such deep depth of the characters in some movies centered on them.

Did you like this media? Would you recommend it to others? Why or why not?

I loved this media, this and the rest of the movies, I recommend it to anyone, although you do have to get through some movies that are really confusing and some that are a little worse quality but overall I loved it.

Do you like the cover? Does it convey what the media is about?

The 'cover' or whatever shows up on Disney doesn't really show what's it's about but you are shown Mystique, Logan, and Charles and then the main setting of the movie so in a way you can assume something about it since Mystique is blue on the cover.
